(CPD # 18-25386-AR)

Man attempts to Disarm Officer

CONCORD – On July 6, 2018 at approximately 419 AM Concord Police Officers responded to assist Loudon Police Officers with a report of a man lying in his underwear in the middle of Route 106. Police arrested:

Sean Blanchard, 39
Loudon, NH

Mr. Blanchard was combative. Mr. Blanchard fought with responding officers and at one point attempted to take an officer's handgun. Mr. Blanchard also bit one of the responding Officer's arm. Mr. Blanchard was eventually controlled with the assistance of a taser and several officers on scene. He faces the following charges:

Taking a Firearm from a Law Enforcement Officer (Felony)
Criminal Threatening (Felony)
Resisting Arrest x2 (Misdemeanor)
Simple Assault on a Police Officer x3 (Misdemeanor)
Disorderly Conduct (Misdemeanor)

Mr. Blanchard was arraigned at the Merrimack County Superior Court on July 6, 2018 and was held on $25,000 cash bail.
