John Conforti Named Deputy City Solicitor

Concord, NH – The City of Concord is pleased to announce that John Conforti has been named Deputy City Solicitor effective July 1, 2024.

Mr. Conforti comes to Concord after serving as Chief Compliance Officer at the New Hampshire Lottery Commission since 2018. Prior to that, he worked as an Assistant Attorney General at the New Hampshire Department of Justice from 2012-2018 where he worked in the civil and transportation bureaus. He graduated from the College of the Holy Cross in 2000 and Fordham University School of Law in 2003.

As Deputy City Solicitor, in collaboration with the City Solicitor, Mr. Conforti will provide legal services to the City's departments and the City Council.

"We are happy to welcome John to the City of Concord," said City Solicitor Danielle Pacik. "He brings extensive legal experience and expertise, and will be a great addition to our team."

"I'm excited to join the City of Concord and look forward to assisting our departments perform their important work on behalf of the citizens of Concord," he said.
