City of Concord Sets 2025 Tax Rate and Due Date of January 2, 2026 for Tax Bills

Concord, NH (November 20, 2025) – The New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration has confirmed the final 2025 tax rates for Concord $29.11 and Penacook $30.74.

The overall rate for Concord increased by $1.42 and the overall rate for Penacook increased by $.10. The City portion only is increased by $0.34.

The City's tax rate reflects careful considerations and the hard work of Mayor Champlin and the members of City Council during a difficult budget year.

The City's Finance Department is preparing for the third and fourth quarter tax bills to be mailed out on or before December 2, 2025, with due dates of January 2, 2026 and March 31, 2026 respectively. Interest will be due on all payments made after January 2, 2026 and March 31, 2026 respectively.

Concord tax rate:

City: $10.18
County: $2.54
Concord School District: $14.81
State Education Rate: $1.58
TOTAL: $29.11

Penacook tax rate:
