

Rollins Park Pollinator Habitat - Species List
Common Names	Latin Name	Notes	Habitat	Height	Spread	Flower Color	Bloom time
Anise Hyssop	Agastache foeniculum	pollinator magnet, mint family, drought tolerant		2-4 ft	1 ft	lavender
Arrowleaf Violet	Viola sagittata	ID with Picture This with Heidi 8/17, one of the eastern beds
Bearberry	Arctostaphylos uva-ursi		acid, dry, sun, sandy	3-6"	2-3 ft
Little Bluestem (grass)	Schizachyrium scoparium	not sure if both are present, or just Little Bluestem
Big Bluestem (grass)	Andropogon gerardi	not sure if both are present, or just Little Bluestem
Butterfly Weed	Asclepias tuberosa		fields with dry soil	1-3.5 ft
Common Cinquefoil	Potentilla simplex
Common Evening Primrose	Oenothera biennis	biennial, produces seed 2nd yr, Japanese beetles love it	disturbed areas	5 ft, 2nd year
Common Milkweed	Asclepias syriaca	larval host for Monarch, butterflies, bumble bees, native bees, honey bees, fragrant	lots of sun, moist
Common Ninebark	Physocarpus opulifolius
Downy Serviceberry	Amelanchier arborea
Dwarf Blazing Star	Liatris cylindracea
Foxglove Beardtongue	Penstemon digitalis	Hummingbirds, Bumblebees
Golden Alexander	Zizia aurea
Goldenrod spp.	Solidago
Hoary Verbena	Verbena stricta
Horseweed	Conyza canadensis	native annual, list of	disturbed areas
Ironweed	Vernonia noveboracensis	likes consistent moisture, but does well in avg garden soil		5-8 ft		purple
Lance-leaf Coreopsis	Coreopsis lanceolata	butterflies, native bees. Not a reliable perennial. Dead-head. Self-sows.				yellow	June
Low-bush Blueberry	Vaccinium angustifolium
Mountain Mint	Pycnanthemum virginianum
New England Aster	Symphyotrichum novae-angliae	clump-forming perennial		1-3 ft	2-3 ft	purple	fall
Obedient Plant	Physostegia virginiana			2-4 ft
Old-field/Blue Toadflax	Nuttallanthus canadensis	pioneer species	anthropogenic, fields, meadows
Purple Coneflower	Echinacea purpurea	prefers well-drained soil in full sun	dry open woods, prairie, barrier	4 ft	10"
Rough Cinquefoil	Potentilla norvegica
Clustered/Short-toothed Mountain Mint	Pycnanthemum muticum	silvery bracts, long-lived, member of mint family	moist freely draining soils
Smooth Aster	Symphyotrichum laeve		rocky dry soil, full sun	8-28"		purple
Spotted Joe-Pye Weed	Eutrochium maculatum
Steeplebush/Meadowsweet	Spiraea tomentosa
Swamp/Rose Milkweed	Asclepias incarnata
Sweet/Purple Joe-Pye Weed	Eutrochium purpureum
Tall Meadow Rue	Thalictrum pubescens
Virginia Mountain Mint	Pycnanthemum virginianum
White Meadowsweet	Spiraea alba
Whorled Milkweed	Asclepias verticillata
Wrinkle-leaf Goldenrod	Solidago rugosa						